Your new pet will be up to date on all the required vaccinations and will have been seen by one of my veterinarians before being put up for adoption. The pet will also be spayed or neutered before being put up for adoption. APe Action advises you to have your new pet seen by your veterinarian within the first forty-eight hours of the adoption. We will disclose any and all information we are aware of to you at the time of the adoption. _____

-Please understand that very often, we are not aware of the animals past, so we can only share with you what we know from the time we got the pet until the time of the adoption. _____

We ask for minimum adoption fees of $250 for MOST DOGS, $150- for seniors(7+), and VERY RARELY $350-$500 depending of if the dog is a puppy, purebred, has been trained though our professional trainer.

The adoption fee price allows us to continue to rescue and place animals in lifelong, loving homes such as yours. _____

All of the information I have provided in this application is true and correct. If any of the information changes, I will advise you promptly.
