

Meet Lolly & Lionel!

They were being dumped at the shelter with two other dogs. They are both very young maybe a year at the most. Super friendly and very social. They love to play!

Lionel, the black one is a bit more shy, but just takes a few seconds longer than Lolly to start giving you kisses.

Lolly, the female is very smart and is Lionel's security blanket. He's very anxious with out her. It would be best if they were adopted together.

They both are under 15 lbs, fixed, updated on all shots, house broken and the perfect little dogs!

Please adopt or foster these two well behaved, and happy little ones!
